NEGOTIATED INDIRECT COST RATE AGREEMENT

---

Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate Agreement (NICRA)

A NICRA is a legal document between the federal government and recipient that formalizes an indirect cost rate which recipients can use in their budgets. Once a recipient obtains a NICRA, that rate will apply in all subsequent federal grants until renewed.

REMINDERS

- ✓ Applicants that wish to charge indirect costs and who do not have a NICRA may use the de minimis rate of 15% of Modified Total Direct Costs, as described in 2 CFR 200.414(f). Calculation of the de minimis rate has changed per the recent OMB updates to 2 CFR 200, at 89 FR 30046.
- ✓ Applicants wishing to develop a NICRA may do so. In most cases, the NICRA must be approved by the entity's cognizant agency. There is an exception for State or Local Governments and Indian Tribes who received $35 million or less during their fiscal year - these entities may prepare a NICRA like usual, but do not need to submit it for approval. They must retain it on file for review upon request by the awarding agency.
- ✓ Only applicants with an existing NICRA are required to submit their letter with their application.

NICRA- Continued

Additional NICRA reminders for applicants include:

---

REMINDERS

- ✓ In all cases, combined direct and indirect administrative costs must stay below the statutory limit, regardless of an entity's NICRA or de minimis rate
- ✓ For additional information, please see Appendix III- VII of 2 CFR 200. Note that these appendices were recently updated by OMB at 89 FR 30046; the text at ecfr.gov is outdated.
- ✓ On April 22, 2024, OMB published updates to 2 CFR 200 in the Federal Register at 89 FR 30046. These updated regulations will apply to all awards under the DE Competitive grant program and include several changes to calculation of the de minimis rate.

Common NICRA Questions

Some common questions NICRA include:

- What are indirect costs?
  - Indirect costs (salaries, fringe benefits, rent, utilities, supplies, etc.) are not charged directly to the federal award but are instead allocated, equitably to the organization's/recipient's activities, typically through a NICRA. All direct and indirect administrative costs must remain under the statutory cap of 10%, regardless of an entity's NICRA rate.
- How can I obtain a NICRA?
  - Applicants should obtain a NICRA from the federal agency that they have received the most funding from, which is considered the entity's "cognizant agency." If the recipient determines that the Department of Commerce (DOC) is their cognizant agency, they should reach out to gmdaudit@nist.gov to begin the process of obtaining for a NICRA. If an applicant is unsure how to determine their cognizant agency, they should refer the OMB published updates to 2 CFR 200 in the Federal Register at 89 FR 30046 and Appendices III-VII in 2 C.F.R. 200.
- How long does the process of obtaining a NICRA usually take?
  - The process of obtaining a NICRA can take up to 180 days.
- Once I obtain a NICRA, where do I submit it?
  - NICRA letters should be uploaded to the NGP once obtained.
